WE have pleasure in presenting our revised list of Roses and Fruit Trees for the Autumn and Spring Season.

Our Stock of ROSE TREES is an exceptionally large and well cultivated one, and most complete in all classes. The STANDARD and BUSH trees are this season especially fine. We would call attention to the STANDARD WEEPING VARIETIES (page 3), which are now in great demand, and of which we hold a large stock of all the most suitable varieties; also to the POT-PLANTS FOR FLOWERING UNDER GLASS (page 4), which have been carefully prepared for forcing. We would refer to the many Testimonials we print of the success of our Trees in all parts of the Kingdom.

All the best novelties in Roses of 1913-14 have been added (see pages 5 and 6), and these as well as others of recent introduction have been much reduced in price throughout the Catalogue.

FRUIT TREES are equal in importance to Roses in our Nurseries, and we have many acres of carefully grown trees ready for removal. Trained Trees for walls and espaliers; Pyramids and Bush Trees for gardens; and Standards for orchards are all particularly good, the growth being clean and well ripened. We can supply the leading kinds for planting for market in large quantities, and we shall be happy at all times to give advice to intending planters for profit, as to the best cropping and most marketable kinds, and the best modes of planting and cultivation to ensure success.

The lease of one of our Rose and Fruit Tree Nurseries is expiring next year; as we have to clear the land we shall be glad to make tempting quotations where large quantities are required.

CONIFERÆ, SHRUBS and ORNAMENTAL TREES we grow in great numbers, and we respectfully invite an inspection of them, as well as our large stocks of GREENHOUSE and DECORATIVE PLANTS, HARDY and HERBACEOUS PLANTS, etc., of which we shall be glad to forward priced lists, or make special quotations at any time for anything required.

Assuring you of our very careful attention to your orders at all times,

We are, yours obediently,

GEO. COOLING & SONS.

We keep a Register of Gardeners, Bailiffs, and Stewards wanting situations, and shall be glad to give particulars to any customer requiring an experienced man.

A Few Hints on their Culture.

WHEN the plants are received from the Nursery, they should, if the weather is not frosty, be unpacked at once and the roots and tops wetted; if the ground is ready plant at once, taking only a few at a time out of the shelter, so that the whole lot may not be exposed for any length of time to cold drying winds.

SITUATION.—A place apart from other flowers should be assigned to Roses, if possible. Oblong beds not over 4-ft. wide are the best, as the flowers may be cut and examined without treading on the beds. The situation should be an open one, though not exposed to high winds and currents. The south-east or south-west aspect is best, the beds being situated so as to receive the morning sun; roses like a free circulation, but are injured by cold draughts; on the other hand, closeness is apt to generate mildew.

SOIL.—That which they especially delight in is a rich fibrous loam that feels greasy when pressed between the fingers; where this is not to be had the soil should be improved—if light, by the addition of loam or even clay well worked in; where heavy, good drainage and the addition of charcoal in small quantities will help it, but in such places drainage is most important. The ground should be deeply trenched, well rotted animal manure being plentifully added; if the soil be old garden soil, add good fresh loam, rich and yellow; if heavy clay, some burned earth, road sand, or leaf mould should be added. For Briars the loam if somewhat adhesive in quality will be all the better.

PLANTING.—Choose a fine day for the operation; rather than plant when the ground is very wet lay the plants in for a day or two and wait. Dwarf or Rose Bushes should be planted with the collar of the bud or point of union with the stock, at least two inches below the surface of the soil. Standard Roses should not be planted too deep—a few inches depth of soil above the roots is sufficient; but firmly stake each tree to prevent the wind rocking it, this last operation is essential to success. When planted amongst other subjects in the borders, a hole should be made about 18-inches deep, and large enough to contain half a wheelbarrowful of a compost of two-thirds strong turfy loam (if it can be procured from an old pasture it is preferable) and one-third well decomposed animal manure, in the midst of this the tree should be planted and trodden in firmly; a little sandy mixture near the roots induces fresh fibre.

WATERING.—Should dry weather follow planting, let the trees have a good soaking of water, and syringe the tops; especially is this necessary with those planted in spring. Large numbers which die every year from the effects of drying winds would be saved if care were taken in watering and syringing as here recommended. When coming into bloom, if weather is dry, give a good soaking once or twice a week, and at this time liquid manure may be used with advantage.

MANURING.—Roses are gross feeders, and will take almost any amount of manure. A layer six inches deep of half-decayed hot-bed manure laid on the beds in November and forked in the following Spring, is an excellent dressing; cow and pig manure, when available, is also good.

PRUNING.—If the trees are planted in the Autumn March is the best month; if Spring planted April will be sufficiently early; the latter month is also the best for pruning the Tea-scented and Noisette kinds. The strength of the shoot must determine the extent of the shortening—if vigorous, leave it much longer than that which is weak; as a rule the stronger kinds should be left 12 to 18 inches long with 5 to 6 eyes, the weaker growing 6 inches with 2 to 4 eyes; these remarks apply mostly to Hybrid Perpetuals. Tea-scented and Noisette Roses should only have the weak growth thinned out and the strong shoots topped. The Summer varieties of Moss Roses should be only sparingly pruned. Do not let established plants of any kind of Rose become crowded with branches, but carefully thin out all small and unripened wood. In all cases prune to a bud pointing outwards.

We send all Orders for Roses of 10/6 value carriage free (plants in pots excepted).

We allow a discount of 5 per cent. for prompt cash.

Collections of Rose Trees for Amateurs.

During the planting season we are often asked to mark a Catalogue with varieties of Roses suitable for an amateur's garden. To meet this we give below a few assortments which are suitable for the various purposes usually required, and if selection of varieties is left to us we are always able to include many kinds of higher value than if selected from the general list.

We especially recommend the following assortment, it contains all required to stock a new garden.

BRIAR ROSES.

The Austrian and Persian Yellow Briars are amongst the most beautiful and distinct of all the old fashioned Roses; they are perfectly hardy, and should be allowed to grow wild with scarcely any pruning, as they always flower upon the ripened wood of the preceding year's growth. We also suggest these Briars being grown as Pot plants; plants with long shoots potted up in autumn flower freely in spring, and are exceedingly novel and pretty amongst plants in the conservatory.

Plants will be so packed that they may stand a journey of a week or ten days without injury. Should the packages arrive at their destination during a severe frost it will be advisable not to unpack them, but to keep them cool and moist, out of reach of frost, until a change of weather takes place.

Failures sometimes take place in the removing and transplanting of all kinds of trees. This may occur through a variety of circumstances, such as severe frost and drought, cold north-easterly winds in spring, want of the usual care in planting, and other causes for which it is impossible for the nurseryman to be accountable. The greatest care is taken to supply healthy and strong plants of everything required; and if on receipt any are broken in transit, or not satisfactory, we shall be pleased to make every compensation: but complaints received months afterwards cannot be taken into consideration.

FOREIGN ORDERS.

We take special care in the selection of Roses and other Plants, Trees and Seeds for exportation, and our system of packing has proved most successful; only well-ripened plants and most suitable varieties are chosen, and every care is taken to secure their safe arrival.

FOREIGN PARCELS POST.—Parcels of Roses may now be sent by post to British Colonies and to most Foreign Countries.

N.B.—Foreign and Colonial Orders must in all cases be accompanied by a remittance, this should include sufficient to cover cost of packing and carriage when latter has to be paid in advance.
